MONTHLY NEWSLETTER OF THE ERLANGER UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

MAY 2021

Dear Church Family,

Greetings in the name of Jesus. As we continue to celebrate the season of easter each day, let us pause to sing, pray, and hold on tightly to the words of one of the great hymns of the church.

“He Lives”

by Alfred Ackley

*I serve a risen Savior
He's in the world today.
I know that He is living,
Whatever men may say.
I see His hand of mercy;
I hear His voice of cheer;
And just the time I need Him
He's always near.*

*He lives, He lives, Christ Jesus lives today!
He walks with me and talks with me along life's narrow way.
He lives, He lives, salvation to impart!
You ask me how I know He lives?
He lives within my heart.*

May God bless and keep you.

Blessings Pastor Andrew and Arpita

Another great day worship. Thankful for all our volunteers who make our worship service a blessing in welcoming people, serving on the sound and technology, serving in so many ways. All for Jesus. Amen

Update about Terry Combs from Ann Abney

For those of us who know Terry Combs and remember all the wonderful times and the Lord's work she did at EUMC, I thought you might like to know how and where she is. In January, she fell in her apt on Hathaway Ct. and fractured 3 bones in her tailbone. She was in hospital for awhile and decided open return to her apt. she could not take care of herself as her eyes are failing as well as her hearing. Her sister, Peggy, helped Terry to vacate her apt and she is now residing at Highland Springs Nursing Home, 960 Highland Ave. Ft. Thomas, Ky. 41075. A card would be appreciated I am sure since she has no telephone. Because I have not kept up with Terry as I did in the past, I got all this information from Brenda Hamilton, another former faithful EUMC member.
